1. Method of Collection of Your Personal Data and Legal Reasons

Within the framework of Article 5/2 of the PDPL, your personal data are collected by the Company as the data controller, mandatory and necessary basic cookies and analytical cookies for the fulfillment of our legal obligations, the establishment of the right and legitimate interest grounds; targeting advertising and analysis cookies are collected verbally, in writing or electronically, automatically or non-automatically, through the following and other channels that may be added to them in the future, based on your consent.

Mandatory Cookies:	These cookies allow you to navigate the Website and use the features you want, such as access to secure areas of the Website. Without these cookies, we cannot provide the services that allow the Website to function.
Essential Basic Cookies:	Analytics cookies and Functionality cookies: Analytics cookies collect information about how visitors use the website, for example which pages they visit most often and whether they receive error messages from web pages, etc. These cookies do not collect information that can identify the visitor. All information collected by these cookies is aggregated and therefore anonymous. It is only used to improve the operation of a website. These cookies are similar to "technical cookies" in that they are alternatively (i) used directly by the site administrator for aggregated collection of information and (ii) managed by third parties, applying special methods to reduce the cookies' ability to identify users (e.g. masking important IP address segments) and third parties use them only to provide services. For example, they use cookie data separately from comparison or enrichment with existing personal data.
Analytical Cookies:	Analytical cookies are cookies that enable the production of analytical results such as the number of visitors to the website, the detection of pages displayed on the website, website visit hours, website page scrolling movements.
Functional cookies:	These cookies allow us to improve the usability and performance of the website and provide various features. They provide us with information about how the website is used. Functional cookies can, for example, save language settings. While these cookies collect anonymous information, they cannot track your movements on other websites.

Flash Cookies (Flash Cookies)	These are the types of cookies used to activate the image or audio content on the website.
Customization Cookies (Customization Cookies)	Cookies used to remember users' preferences when visiting different pages of the website. For example, remembering your language preference.
Session Cookies (Session Cookies)	Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used during our visitors' visit to the Website and deleted after the browser is closed. The main purpose of using such cookies is to ensure the proper functioning of the Website during your visit. For example; it is ensured that you fill in online forms consisting of more than one page.
Persistent Cookies (Persistent Cookies)	Persistent cookies are types of cookies used to increase the functionality of the Website and to provide a faster and better service to our visitors. Such cookies are used to remember your preferences and are stored on your device via browsers. Some types of persistent cookies can be used to provide you with special suggestions, taking into account issues such as your purpose of using the Website. Thanks to persistent cookies, if you visit our Website again with the same device, it is checked whether there is a cookie created by our Website on your device and if there is, it is understood that you have visited the site before and the content to be transmitted to you is determined accordingly and thus a better service is provided to you.
